Treasures of the Commonwealth

Australia's collecting story

A visual story of where heritage object come from, what is collected, and how commemorative issues changes through time. This visualisation is targeted for museum visitors and anyone curious about Australian's collection history

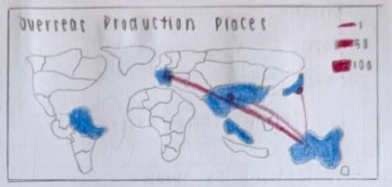

By: Zi Ting Mow (34612602)

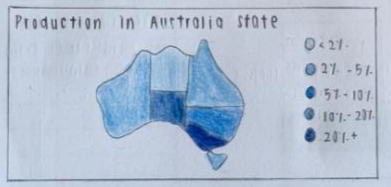

1. Spatial Provenance

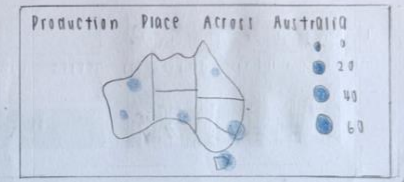

Where were objects made, found, or collected

The Australia's collectibles are mainly focus on the area such as _____

Internationally, the collectibles spread out to _____

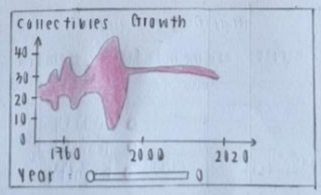

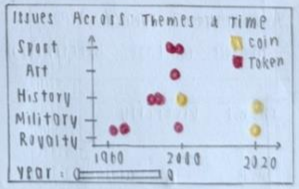

2. Changes Across Times & Eras

How do category counts and ranks shift across historical periods?

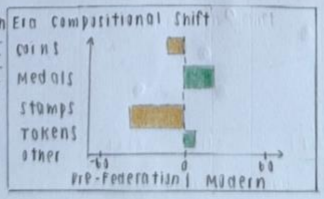

Major peaks found around year ____

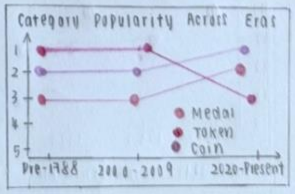

During Pre-Federation _____

The most favourable collections are ____

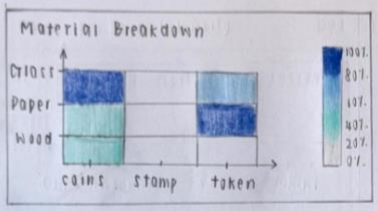

Next →

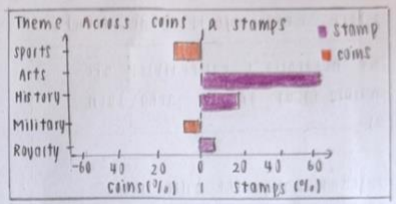

3. Collection Profiles

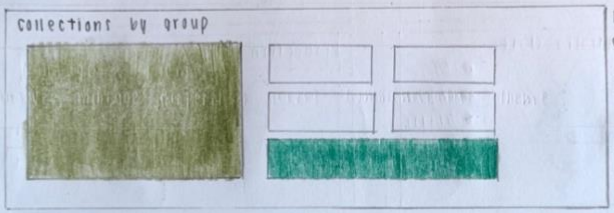

What kind of items, collection groups and materials are represented

Based on the charts, category such as _____

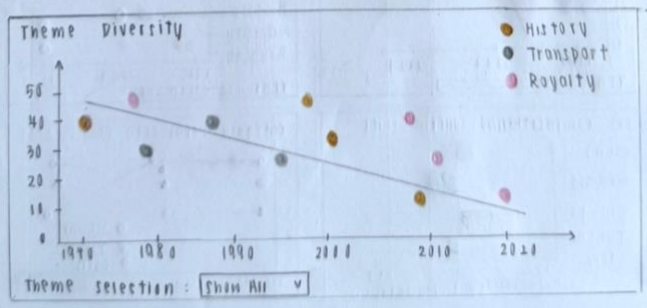

Most of the collection in the museum comes from a few main donors, such as _____

4. Mintage & Theme

Analyze mintage description across commemorative theme

The overall coin mintage has ____